Re: Release and Satisfaction of SHIP Lien
Date: April 12, 2013

Dear Commissioners:

On Tuesday, March 12, 2013, my father Herbert Snyder, passed away. He was 89 years old. There is currently a SHIP lien on his home on Clarke Street with one year left, in addition to a first mortgage. We understand that the Board sometimes forgives these types of loans after a death, and we would appreciate very much a waiver of this loan.

Please let me know if you need additional information. Thank you for your courtesies.
